International week - Factsheet

Interested staff should notify their home institution about their application to this International Week to ensure that they are eligible to participate.

General information

International week Title	International Week in Hispanic Studies
Coordinating institution	University of Brest (UBO) Erasmus Code: FBrest01
Study field	Languages Hispanic Studies ; History ; Cultural Studies ;
Abstract:	This international week aims to bring together SEA-EU alliance teachers and researchers specializing in Spanish linguistics, literature, and cultures—commonly known as Hispanic Studies—who are willing to share their work with our students here in Brest and with our team of teachers and researchers. This week will allow our students and our pedagogical and scientific staff to open up to other ways of teaching and conducting research throughout the alliance.
Calendar	• 09/11/2026 at 11:59pm: Application deadline • 16/11/2026: Confirmation of acceptance • 11-15/01/2027: Physical mobility
Total number of hours:	8 hours per teacher
Coordinator	Nathalie Narvaez
Number of participants	8 participants maximum
Mobility costs	This mobility is eligible for Erasmus+ teaching mobility (STA- KA 131). Please contact your university for more information.
Contact	Regarding pedagogical contents: Nathalie Narvaez nathalie.narvaezbruneau@univ-brest.fr Regarding organisational aspects: mobilite.internationale@univ-brest.fr

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

Selection of participants	Participants will be selected by the institution hosting the international week, based on the teaching topics and course language of choice. Candidates must apply through the following form: Application form In parallel, each candidate should also notify their institution (International Relations office, SEA-EU office… according to their internal procedure) of their application. The selection of participants for the award of Erasmus grants is the responsibility of the sending university.

Pedagogical contents

Abstract of International Week	Introducing students in Brest to different European teaching methodologies and academic perspectives on Spanish linguistics, literature and diverse Spanish-speaking cultures.
subject/theme of the courses	All kind of courses are invited dealing with Hispanic studies, mostly on language, literature, linguistics and culture. We particularly welcome innovative course proposals. Translation courses are expected to be led by French Studies teachers from Cadiz or teachers proficient in translation between Spanish and French.
expected teaching language(s)	Spanish, with the exception of translation classes, which may also be conducted in French.
profile of students taking the courses	Bachelor students

Practical information

Mobility cost	This mobility is eligible for Erasmus+. Please contact your university for more information.

Location	Faculty of Humanities - Victor Segalen 20 rue Duquesne 29200 Brest
Accomodation recommandations	A welcome handbook will be sent to selected participants.
Organisation and tips (Meals, leisure activities, weather recommendations...)	A welcome handbook will be sent to selected participants.
Contact of the person in charge of signing the mobility agreement	Bleuenn Brayet Guezennec mobilite.internationale@univ-brest.fr