

SEA-EU FILM FESTIVAL

GET YOUR WORK SHARED AT THE INTERNATIONAL STAGE AND PRESENTED AT THE UNIVERSITY OF SPLIT DURING THE ART STAFF
WEEK (5 - 7 NOVEMBER 2024)

The University of Split, a member of the European University of the Seas (SEA-EU) alliance, invites all students to apply to the SEA-EU Film Festival by sending video 3 - 15 minutes long.

The idea of the festival is to promote the artistic work of students and allow new talents to showcase their work to the international community.

The best-ranked videos will be selected by the international jury of experts from all SEA-EU universities. Selected videos will be exhibited in Split during the Art Staff Week (5 – 7 November 2024).

THEME OF THE CALL

Given that this is a pilot activity, the theme of the Call is open, and will welcome all ideas and topics to ensure everyone has the opportunity to contribute.

*WHO CAN APPLY?

The call is intended for all SEA-EU students as well as students from other universities outside of the Alliance.

GUIDELINES & RULES

- The contest is free of charge and open to all students of the Alliance and outside of it.
- The contest participants must hold the rights to their video and obtain permission if they take videos/videos of smaller groups, families, or close-up photos of faces or videos with children in them. Film must be 3 – 15 minutes long.
- Films must be in English or subtitled in English (if they contain speaking parts).
- Each applicant can submit 1 video.
- The applicant needs to be the author/creator of the video, otherwise it won't be accepted.
- Submission of the videos will be done through form. A video must be named as follows: Name of the University_Surname and name initial (for example: UNIST_SurnameN).
- All videos must be uploaded in mov, mp4 or avi format.
- Videos made by artificial intelligence will not be accepted.

Application deadline: 1 October 2024.

SELECTION

The selection criteria will include technical and artistic value. The selection will be made based on the professional opinion. The expert jury will decide on which work will be exhibited at the SEA-EU Film Festival.

- Jury composition - 1 member nominated by each SEA-EU partner.

VIDEO RIGHTS

Each participant declares to be the author of the video and acknowledges to have all the necessary authorizations for video-release.

Participants agree that, if selected, their video may only be shared by partners within SEA-EU alliance at the SEA-EU Film Festival. Further distribution of the selected videos will not be possible without prior explicit consent of the author. This approach ensures that participants' works are distributed responsibly and exclusively within a trusted network of collaborators, fostering a supportive environment for creative exchange and distribution while respecting intellectual property rights.

THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE UNIVERSITY OF SPLIT

The University Gallery at the University of Split will support this action by providing an exhibition venue and adequate technical support.
