

Driving Sustainability, the SDGs in Teaching and Research activities in Law Departments

SEA-EU Staff Week 2025 in Naples

General information

Staff Week Title	Driving Sustainability, the SDGs in Teaching and Research activities in Law Departments
Abstract:	The implementation of sustainability in universities and their departments, especially in education and research, is still debated. The Staff Week aims to share practices and initiatives from the Law departments or faculties of SEA-EU partner universities in undergraduate programs, postgraduate training, and research, focused on the environmental and social goals of the UN 2030 Agenda, in order to identify future opportunities of cooperation.
Application deadline & registration form	Please register before the 24 August by referring to your Institution's SEA-EU Office, or by sending an email to staffweekdig@uniparthenope.it
Dates of the staff week	21-23 October 2025
Number of participants	Each SEA-EU university can propose up to 3 participants. Minimum number is 9, maximum number is 18.
Mobility costs	KA131 – Please refer to your Institution's International Office
Contact	For organizational aspects: SEA-EU Office – seaeu.upn@uniparthenope.it Dr. Rosita Riccio – staffweekdig@uniparthenope.it Mobility Agreements: ufficio.internazionale@uniparthenope.it

Contents

Target group / Expected profile of participants	Teaching staff of Law departments or faculties of SEA-EU partners.
Requirements	The program will be held in English language.
Agenda	Starting at 12:00 p.m. on Tuesday 21: personal introduction by all partners, following by a light lunch. In the afternoon presentation of the Teaching and Research activities linked to sustainability of the law Departments/Faculties. We will round off the day with a walk on the wonderful seafront of Naples and a lovely dinner near the sea. On Wednesday we will start with a welcome coffee and a tour of the campus. In the mid-morning, the partners will gather in a classroom for an in-depth discussion on SDGs related practices and initiatives in the research activities conducted by the Law departments/faculties. After a light lunch, participants will visit the historic center of Naples. The day will conclude with a dinner dedicated to Neapolitan pizza. On Thursday, 23 October, at 9:30, the partners will meet at villa Doria D'Angri, on the hill of Posillipo, for a concluding session. During the morning there will be also a visit to the naval museum of Parthenope University and the group photo. After the lunch (by 3 p.m.) we will be happy to arrange a transfer for you. We will provide a detailed agenda following your registration.

Practical information

Accommodation	At the link Uniparthenope Brochure-VisitNapoli a list of accommodations is provided.
Adress	Università degli studi di Napoli Parthenope Dipartimento di Giurisprudenza, Via Generale Parisi, 13 – Napoli
Costs	We expect participants to cover their own travel and hotel expenses. We will be able to sign an Erasmus+ Staff Mobility Agreement for Training for those of you who should want or need to finance part of your visit using this opportunity.