

Staff Week

SeaBlue: Reflection, Feedback and Continuous Improvement

Naples: 24-26 June 2026

General Information

Hosting Institution	Università degli Studi di Napoli Parthenope
Staff Week Title	SeaBlue: Reflection, Feedback and Continuous Improvement
Abstract	This staff week is designed to support the continuous improvement of the SeaBluE Joint Degree by placing the experiences, observations, and feedback of SeaBluE teaching staff at the center of the discussion. Building on the first year of programme implementation, the initiative aims to identify academic, pedagogical, organisational, and coordination-related challenges and translate them into concrete corrective actions for the second year of course delivery.
Number of participants	Representatives of the SeaBluE teaching staff involved in Year 1 and Year 2 course delivery from the Parthenope University of Naples, the University of Cádiz and the University of Gdańsk. Participation is recommended for partner universities contributing to teaching and coordination.
