

Summer School for Students of the SEA-EU joint study programmes

General information

Hosting Institution:	UG
Summer School Title:	“Sport and Culture as Spaces for Intercultural Dialogue and Integration” Gdansk Summer School 2026
Abstract:	The SEA-EU Summer School is a five-day program designed for students completing their first year of joint international studies within the SEA-EU alliance . Its aim is to support academic mobility and foster intercultural dialogue among participants from partner universities. The program combines workshops on soft skills, practical training, and theoretical knowledge with cultural and recreational activities in an international setting. Delivered in English by experts from SEA-EU institutions, the Summer School provides opportunities for networking, collaborative learning, and exploring diverse academic pathways. By integrating education, sport, and culture, this initiative strengthens connections within the SEA-EU community and promotes teamwork, creativity, and well-being.
