

University of Split

General Overview

Founded in 1974

19 constituents and 5 university centers, including residential sites/student dorms across 16 sites in the City (11 constituents and the Rectorate are in the Campus)

Covering diverse fields including arts, humanities, engineering, economics, law, medicine, maritime studies, forensic sciences, theology, natural sciences, and sport

18.000 students / 1.960 employees

More info - University Constituents

Priority Research Areas

Key research topics include: Healthy living, Natural resources, A sustainable and resilient society, Energy, materials and advanced technologies, Digitalization and Culture, heritage and identity. Through scientific research, the University attracts top researchers and students, and improves the quality of teaching. Through research and innovative approaches, the University strives to contribute to the UN 17 Global Goals for Sustainable Development by 2030.

More info - Research Areas

Support for Early-Career Researchers

Coordinated by the Department for Science and Innovation: Organization of MSCA and postdoctoral seminars (on-site & virtual), Liaison with National Contact Points, Proposal support (gender, dissemination, WP structure), Individual researcher assistance and hosting arrangements, Management of proposal submissions.

Career Development

The University promotes researcher career growth through the European Charter & Code principles.

Holder of the HR Excellence in Research Award since 2013, reaffirmed in 2024, recognizing its commitment to ethical standards, transparency, and international research excellence.

