

General Information

Course Title		Code
Global Citizenship – SEA-EU Micro-credential		SEAEU016-01a
Course teacher
Wibke Matthes, Key Skills Centre, University: Kiel University
Organiser/Contact person
Key Skills Centre, University: Kiel University
Credits (ECTS)	Workload
1	1 ECTS = 25 to 30 h Workload, including 3 contact hours and 27 hours of self instructed learning
Language of instruction
English
Mode of provision
Online 100%
Percentage of e-learning (0-100%)
90%
Short course description (for dissemination to students)
This mostly asynchronous online seminar of about 20 to 25 hours of learning is designed to encourage and inspire you as a student to take a close look at the concept of Global Citizenship and to develop an understanding of Global Citizenship on an individual level. Within this supervised online course with 10% of synchronous online teaching and 90% of asynchronous self-paced learning on an online platform with open weekly coaching (on demand), you will have the opportunity to explore approaches to globalization and citizenship and engage with the Sustainable Development Goals. Furthermore, you'll examine the concept of Cultural Intelligence and reflect on how to act in a culturally diverse context!
Time and place for lessons
April to July (and on individual arrangements) Preliminary Meeting: 22.4.26, 4:00 pm CET

Organisational Information

Course format/teaching and learning method (see SEA-EU list of teaching and learning methods)
Seminar
Max. number of participants
60
Course enrolment
For SEA-EU students (students from Kiel University please use the local system QIS) https://studfeedback.uni-kiel.de/evasys/online.php?p=VGRAE

Please make sure to register with your university e-mail.

Application is possible until 10.04.2026. After 10.04.2026, there is a random allocation of seats. You will receive an email from the course leader with further details once you have been allocated a place on the seminar.

Course fees

none

Enrolment requirements

Study level Bachelor (level 6)

The course is also open for students of other levels, but keep in mind that you might have problems getting the courses ECTS recognized. Please contact your university for more information on this.

Entry level of language proficiency: English B2

Other requirements:

Link to the university's website for the course

<https://univis.uni-kiel.de/prg?search=lectures&number=200301&lang=en%20&show=llong&&noimports=1&sem=2026s>

More information on SEA-EU micro-credentials: <https://sea-eu.org/microcredentials/> // https://www.zfs.uni-kiel.de/en/studies-with-plus/what-international-courses-can-i-take/sea-eu%20micro-credentials?set\_language=en

Other remarks

Learning Conditions

Course content

This mostly asynchronous online seminar is designed to encourage and inspire you as a student to take a close look at the concept of Global Citizenship and to develop an understanding of Global Citizenship on an individual level. Within this supervised online course with 10% of synchronous online teaching and 90% of asynchronous self-paced learning on an online platform with open weekly coaching (on demand), you will have the opportunity to explore approaches to globalization and citizenship and engage with the Sustainable Development Goals. Furthermore, you'll examine the concept of Cultural Intelligence and reflect on how to act in a culturally diverse context!

The self-study course will introduce to the topic of global citizenship and help you recognize what it means to be a part of a global community.

Consider the impact you may have, as well your individual and collective responsibilities, as global citizens, within your local, national, and global communities and discuss this knowledge with students from other European countries. This micro-credential course gives you the possibility to

Linked to micro-credential programme
x Future Skills <input type="checkbox"/> Sustainability studies
Linked to micro-credential module (see module list)
<input type="checkbox"/> Higher order thinking competences <input type="checkbox"/> Self competences <input type="checkbox"/> Social and communication competences x Transformative competences <input type="checkbox"/> Digital and media competences
Linked Competence
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Global awareness competences</li> <li>- Citizenship competences</li> </ul> defining your own role as a Global Citizen in reflective interaction (online) with students from the nine partner Unis of the SEA-EU Alliance.
Learning outcomes (knowledge, skills, attitudes)
Students are able to... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- analyze global issues by critically examining the interconnected relationships between social, economic, and environmental factors, demonstrating the ability to discern patterns and evaluate the implications of these interconnections on a global scale</li> <li>- explore cross-cultural communication skills to engage with diverse stakeholders, fostering effective collaboration and negotiation in the pursuit of global solutions to social, economic, and environmental challenges.</li> <li>- analyze and interpret information from diverse cultural perspectives.</li> <li>- articulate personal values related to global citizenship, expressing empathy and concern for the well-being of people worldwide.</li> </ul>
Student activities
Online videos, quizzes, reflective forums, reading
Attendance policy
Attendance in one onboarding meeting and one wrap up meeting
Assessment Methods (see SEA-EU list of assignments)
Portfolio (open book assessment consisting of four multiple choice quizzes, one reflective essay and four discussion posts in an online forum), 100%
Grading
non-graded (pass/fail)
Study materials/Course literature

